Definitions:

Breeder:

The Bauer Silver Thai Cats Kennel is a cat breeding kennel engaged in the breeding and sale of purebred cats under these Terms and Conditions. The breeder is responsible for the professional rearing of the kittens, for checking their health and for the sale of the kittens.

Customer:

A natural or legal person who buys or seizes a purebred cat from a breeder and accepts the terms and conditions set out in the GTC. The purchaser undertakes to provide the cat with the appropriate care and to be responsible for its neutering (if the cat is not being purchased for breeding purposes).

2. Subject of the service

The breeding farm is engaged in the breeding and sale of purebred cats, in accordance with the legislation in force in Hungary. The information, pictures and descriptions on this website are for information purposes only, and are based on the knowledge, literature, internet resources and personal experience of the breeder.

3. Booking and purchase procedure

3.1. Reservations

- Kittens can be booked in advance, subject to a deposit.
- Deposit amount: deducted from the final amount (negotiated price).
- Deposits are non-refundable unless the breeder is unable to provide the selected puppy.
- After booking, the customer is kept informed about the puppy's progress.

3.2. Purchasing and contracting

- The kittens are placed in their new homes at a minimum of 12 weeks of age.
- At the time of transfer, the cat has:
 - With age-appropriate vaccinations and worming

- Microchip
- With a sales contract
- With health guarantee
- Cats purchased for non-breeding (hobby) purposes must be neutered.
- The studbook will be sent only after the veterinary certificate of castration has been presented.
- If the buyer intends to purchase the cat for breeding purposes, this must be stated in advance and an individual agreement is required.

4. Payment terms

- Payment of the full purchase price (in HUF or EUR) is due before or at the time of receipt.
- Accepted payment methods:
 - Cash
 - Bank transfer
- Payment by instalments is not possible.
- In the case of bank transfer, the purchase price, which will be determined in HUF or EUR, must be paid in full, in advance, to the Breeder's bank account. The transfer and all bank charges shall be borne by the Buyer. This condition is accepted by the Buyer by paying the deposit.

5. Delivery and receipt

- The cats are mainly collected in person, at the breeder's premises.
- Transport is arranged by the buyer, but the breeder can assist with transport by prior arrangement.
- Shipping costs are the responsibility of the buyer.

6. Viewing and receiving the cats

- The breeder does not have permanent opening hours, so viewing and collection of kittens is by appointment.
- The buyer must arrange a date for the visit or pick-up with the breeder in advance, which will be arranged according to the breeder's availability.
- Visits to the breeding facilities are limited in number and time only to ensure the animals' well-being and to comply with health and safety regulations.
- The buyer must arrange the date of collection with the breeder at least 3 days in advance.

7. Sales abroad (outside Hungary)

- If the cat is sold to a foreign country, the Buyer is fully responsible for the costs of transport, export administration (e.g. passport, health certificate, vaccinations, official permits) and the costs of obtaining them.

- The Buyer must pay the full purchase price of the cat before delivery.
- The Breeder is not responsible for any damage caused during transport abroad, for any problems caused by official regulations or for any health risks after the cat arrives in a new country.

8. Health guarantee and liability

- There is no procedure that can detect with absolute certainty any health problem that may occur later.
- Guarantee for genetic diseases: if the cat dies or has to be euthanized before the age of 1 year due to a proven (medical opinion required) hereditary or developmental disorder, the breeder must provide another animal from the next litter free of charge. The breeder shall not owe the Buyer any financial compensation in addition to the kitten provided free of charge.
- The breeding kennel is not responsible for any illness or injury to the puppy in its new home.

9. Neutering obligation

- All cats sold for hobby purposes must be neutered by the new owner at the time recommended by the vet, but no later than 8 months of age.
- The breeding kennel will only post the pedigree after presentation of the veterinary certificate of castration.
- The buyer undertakes that the cat will not be bred. If the buyer is found to be breeding the cat against a hobby contract, the breeder is entitled to take legal action.
- All breeding cats in the breeding herd have been genetically tested with MyCatDNA™ (by Wisdom Panel™). Only cats with breed-appropriate test results for hereditary diseases are used for breeding.

10. Right of withdrawal

- The Buyer acknowledges that the right of withdrawal without giving reasons does not apply to live animals, as they are individual, living organisms and their care and preparation is carried out according to the Buyer's needs.
- Once the deposit has been paid, the Buyer may not withdraw from the purchase and the deposit is non-refundable, unless the Breeder is unable to provide the kitten of their choice.
- If the Buyer fails to show up and collect the kitten by the agreed pick-up time, the Breeder reserves the right to offer the cat to another owner and the deposit will be forfeited.
- The Buyer may only withdraw from the purchase if a veterinary certificate confirms that the cat was seriously ill at the time of delivery. In this case, the parties shall conclude an individual agreement on the further procedure.

11. Withdrawal

- If the Buyer is unable to keep the cat for any reason, the Breeder will re-home the cat to the best of its ability.
- The redemption does not constitute a repurchase, the Breeder is not obliged to refund any money to the Buyer.
- The Breeder will find a new home for the re-homed cat, but the former Buyer has no say in the new placement.
- The return of the cat is subject to prior agreement and the Buyer must ensure that the cat is returned in a healthy and veterinary condition.
- The Breeder reserves the right to refuse a rehoming without giving reasons if it is unable to accommodate the cat properly at the time.

12. Animal welfare and buy-back

- The buyer agrees to provide the cat with suitable conditions, including proper nutrition, veterinary care and environment.
- The buyer acknowledges that he/she may only keep the cat in the apartment, may only let it out of the apartment at his/her own risk, and any damage resulting from this shall be borne by the buyer.

13. Data protection

- The personal data provided by the buyers will be used by the breeding farm only for the purpose of the sale and for communication purposes.
- We will not disclose your data to third parties, except where required by law.

14. Handling disputes

- We will first try to resolve any disputes between the breeder and the buyer by negotiation.
- If no agreement can be reached, the parties can go to the local court.

15. Final provisions

- The breeder reserves the right to amend the GTC.
- The customer must read and accept the provisions of the GTC before making a purchase.
